A. Preamble

Barloworld Limited (“Barloworld”) its subsidiaries and divisions (together the “Group”), are committed to creating value for all its stakeholders. Our principles of sustainable development – comprising of value creation, sustainable environmental performance and corporate social responsibility – are integral to our business strategy. Our approach to sustainable development includes how we work with our Suppliers. We integrate sustainable development into our procurement strategy, our day-to-day operations and relationships with Suppliers. The subsidiaries and divisions of the Group are required to identify, prevent and manage risks pertaining to Health and Safety (H & S), social responsibility and the environment in their supply chain.

For purposes of this Self-Assessment Questionnaire a “Supplier” is deemed to be any third party in the form of a bidder, vendor, contractor, consultant, agent or intermediary that is supplying goods or services to the Group or a Group company, or making an offer to supply goods or services to the Group or a Group company in the form of a bid / tender / quotation or proposal, or that has been awarded a contract for the supply of goods and/or services to any Group company or the Group. The Group seeks to engage in long-term relationships with Suppliers that are committed to sustainable development. Our goal is to partner with Suppliers to deliver value-for-cost procurement for the Group and its customers, and to demonstrate responsible supply chain management.

B. Supplier Assessment Questionnaire (SAQ)

It is for these reasons that Barloworld is requesting completion of this questionnaire by all existing and prospective suppliers so as to ensure that its business interactions are free of potential misconduct and are of the highest integrity.

Kindly ensure that all questions are answered and supporting documentation provided. Refer to the applicable section at the end of the questionnaire for the required supporting documentation.

An incomplete or incorrectly completed questionnaire will cause delays in the processing of your application and could lead to your company being rejected as a supplier.

Unless otherwise stipulated, the information to be supplied should be for the operating company that will be entering into the proposed business relationship with Barloworld and / or that will be party to the contractual agreement.

This Self-Assessment Questionnaire (SAQ) supports the identification of potential sustainability risk. The SAQ consolidates guidance from a number of frameworks and guidelines, including but not limited to the International Labour Organization (ILO), various Country legal requirements, best practice industry guidance and input from an extensive community of stakeholders. At a minimum, this SAQ must be completed by all third party service providers which provides goods and/or services to Barloworld. There is no “pass or fail” approach when evaluating your responses. Note: The questions in this SAQ do not require you to disclose any customer details or proprietary information.

C. Consent to use of information

The information collected in this questionnaire will be processed, used and stored for the purpose of conducting a supplier due diligence review, which is a pre-requisite for all existing and prospective suppliers for doing business with Barloworld or any of its companies or business units. This is in order to comply with Barloworld's obligations to prevent non-compliant behavior in business and to ensure that its business interactions are free of potential misconduct, of the highest integrity and promotes ethical behavior.

By providing the information requested in this questionnaire, you consent to the processing and use of the data by Barloworld, and its storage on Barloworld's database for the above stated purpose, which may include the transfer of such data for the same purpose to affiliated / associated companies of Barloworld with which the supplier does or intends doing business.

You further consent to the fact that Barloworld may consult both publicly available sources and / or private sources, including engaging the services of external screening providers to collect, process and use information about the supplier and any individuals named in the questionnaire for the purpose of conducting the supplier due diligence review.

Barloworld undertakes not to disclose the supplier's information to any third party without the supplier's prior consent unless required to do so by a court of law or under any applicable legislation.

D. How to complete this SAQ

The SAQ is compulsory for all suppliers to complete. Please complete responses to all questions and provide all supporting documentation requested. Should you have any questions relating to the questionnaire, do not hesitate to contact your designated Barloworld point of contact as indicated in the e-mail message that you received. Should any of the information supplied in the questionnaire change at any time, kindly notify your designated Barloworld point of contact of the change with immediate effect.

E. Reserved right for verification and audits

Barloworld reserves the right to verify whether through request for and/or inspection of supporting documentation, desktop research, site inspections, audits by Barloworld internal audit, Barloworld appointed auditors or through requesting third party assurance /verification at the cost of the supplier.
